Working Group formed by Kiskatinaw Ecological Society

At their annual general meeting on July 31st in the Sunrise Valley District, the Kiskatinaw Ecological Society decided to form a working group to discuss the question posed in their Summer 2010 Newsletter (The Kiskatinaw Eye Opener).

Do we need a pilot program for the Kiskatinaw River Valley Watershed that possibly encompasses the best aspects of both the Government of Australia's Land Care and the U.S.D.A Natural Resources Conservation Service?

Committee Members are: Sandra Burton, Farmington
Fred Burres, Farmington
Connor Dixon, Calgary
Shellan Hauber, Arras
Glenn Hogberg, Progress
Michael Nimitz, Sunrise Valley
Ernest Nimitz, Sunrise Valley

Target date for "the Group's" initial report is late Fall 2010.
